

FALL SCHEDULE 2009

Events are every Thursday at 12:00 P.M.

Research ColloquiaHeld in 4188 JFSB*September 10

*Early Modern Dutch Women in the City:
The Imaging of Economic Agency and Power*
Martha Peacock, PhD
Visual Arts

September 24

Mentored Research on Women in a Spanish Village of the 1700s
George Ryskamp, PhD
History

October 8

Self-Determination: A Blessing and a Burden
Cassandra Christensen Barney, MFA
Visiting Artist
Currently exhibiting in 1063 JFSB

October 19

Held in 2110 JFSB at 9:00 AM
Reflections on the Life of a Scholar: Looking for the Woman's Part in Renaissance England
Carole Levine, PhD
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

October 22

WRI Distinguished Research Lecture
"That Guilty Woman of England": Elizabeth Tudor in the Mind and Memory of Renaissance Writers
Brandie Siegfried, PhD
English

November 5

*Share and Share Alike: Anne Travell and Sibling
Relationships in Georgian England*
Amy Harris, PhD
History

November 19

Women and Conversion
Rachel Cope, PhD
BYU Studies

Film SeriesHeld in 2110 JFSB*September 17

Held in 4186 JFSB
Kau Faito'o: Traditional Healers of Tonga
Presenter: Melinda Ostraff, PhD
Biology
Filmmaker and Adjunct Faculty

October 1

Women's Bank of Bangladesh
Discussant: Joan Dixon, EdD
Center for Economic Self-Reliance

October 15

He Said, She Said
Discussant: Susan Balcom Walton, MA, APR
Communications

October 29

Missing Women: Female Selective Abortion and Infanticide
Discussant: Valerie Hudson, PhD
Political Science

November 12

Who Does She Think She Is?
Discussant: Von Allen, PhD
Visual Arts

December 3

Iron Ladies of Liberia
Discussant: Gloria Cronin, PhD
English

Book DiscussionHeld in 4188 JFSB*December 10

So Long a Letter
By Mariama Bâ
Presenter: Chantal Thompson, PhD
French and Italian Languages